Must be an automobile of some considerable size, ch? It is. The machine is a twentieth century "Prairie Grey-hound." Mr. Conklin had it built especially for the trip.

During the overland voyage, which is expected to take about two months, Mr. Conklin and his party will have their meals and sleep on board the "greyhound," which is a sixty horsepower automobile, twenty-one feet long, seven and a half feet wide and seven feet high, with an upper deck

There was much excitement this morning around the Conklin summe ome, Rosemary Farm, on the outskirts of Huntington, The "autohouse," gaily bedecked with flags, stood in front of the Conklin mansion, its engines throbbing and ready in every detail for the 3,0: mile trip.

The least excited of all the party was Mr. Conklin himself. His wife and the others in the house were up early, but he had a long sleep. Miss Julia Conklin, his daughter, tried to arouse him when a friend telephoned from New York at I o'clock, but he there was no telling how much rest he'd get in the house on wheels,
